Course: UNIV 100 – Sections 033/034/088 Theme: Art & Music

Course Topic: Music Critic: Great Albums

Description: An in depth look at 10 of the most influential albums in American musical history from the 1960's to 1990's. Ranging from the Beatles to Grunge to Gangster Rap, the class will become familiar with albums that have shaped the American musical landscape where they become the music critic. It will cross-sect musical genres and discuss why the albums in question were important, the history and background of the artist, and the recording process and artwork.
