Course: UNIV 100 – Section H03 Theme: Culture & Literature

Course Topic: Women in Medieval France

Description: The medieval period is among the most misunderstood in history. This course will debunk myths about the French Middle Ages generally and challenge misconceptions about the role women played during the era. We will look at a variety of different kinds of sources to discover what place women occupied in medieval French society and how they made significant contributions to their own time and to ours.
