Living Learning Community

2018-2019

If you want to know more about how a business works, how to run a business, or how to start one, then this LLC is for you. Established on the principles of support, connection and community, the Taste of Business LLC is designed to introduce the world of business to students from all academic disciplines. In addition to sharing classes and living together, students will strengthen their education through a variety of learning experiences offered at academic and social events sponsored by the B.I. Moody III Moody College of Business Administration. Business principles apply to any career choice, and by joining this LLC, students will get a little “taste of business” that can serve as a great foundation for any career.
