Letter to Me

Dear future me,

Do not forget from where you came from. Keep in touch with the family, especially mom and Kathryn, they will be missing you the most. Stay focused on school and not boys, but boys only a little bit. Keep on the straight and narrow but leave the path when needed. Study, study, and study more than you think you need too. You need me time, do not forget to make time for you. You can not go, go, go, you need your rest and alone time. Only eat what you must, do not overeat, eat when are satisfied and not more than that. Keep your goals in mind when you continue this journey of life. Your goals right now are One, get your degree. Two, lose weight and stay healthy. Three, dive deeper into your religion. Four, make good new friends. Five, get a man. But if you need to add more than you can, but try to do all of these, I know for a fact you can. Make sure you stick up for yourself and try not to be a people pleaser all the time. Make sure you do not put yourself into situations that you do not need to be in.

Try to get a 3.5 GPA or higher, just like in high school. If you need to pick between school and a social life, you better pick school, or else. You are going to college to get a degree to take care of yourself. To get a good job, to buy a good house, and to raise a wonderful family. Do not get distracted by the bad, do not forget the good. Make sure you find good people who will help you thrive in college and after college. You will be an adult for the rest of your life, so be careful with whom you have relationship with. Be good future Kim, I am depending on you.
