

My First SEMESTER

REFLECTION

- Living in dorms
- Going from sleeping alone to sleeping in a room with a stranger
  - Meeting new people
- Becoming more social, making new connections
  - Different environment
- Wide variety of people & familiar, but new places
  - Classes and work load
- Larger classes, more independence, harder subjects, more homework
  - Maturing
- Mentally growing, figuring out priorities
  - Importance of going to class
- Missing classes can make you fall behind quickly and lower grades
  - Slowly finding myself
- Figuring out what I like by being exposed to new things

IMPROVE

- Time management and procrastination
- Studying more
- Participating more in/out of class
- Joining clubs/organizations
- Being more open to things/get out of my comfort zone
- Better/healthier routine
- Make more time for family

